Dedication

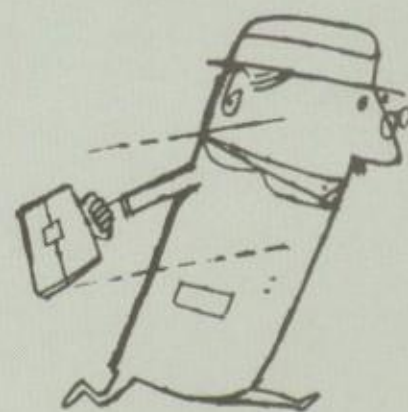

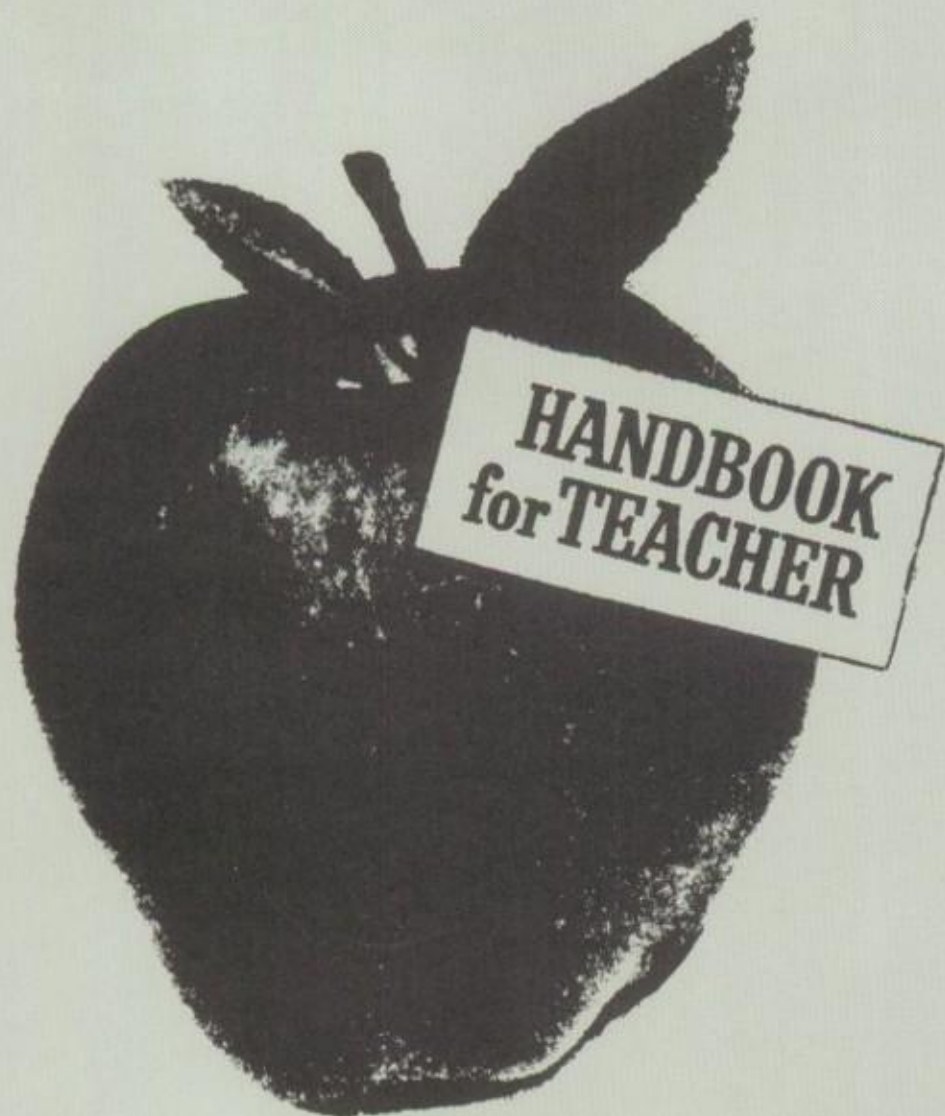

We, the 1964 Annual Staff, proudly dedicate this yearbook to Mr. James Conlee, who has so freely given of his time, talents, and patience toward making our band the outstanding one it is today. Under his direction the band has attended music festivals, state contests, and Band Days. In 1962 and again in 1963, the band received superior ratings at state contest for the first time in ten years. Mr. Conlee has also helped instill in the students of B. H. S. and the people of Beardstown a deep appreciation of music.

Mr. Conlee spent much time transposing music for the band.

ADMINISTRATION

Loren C. Lemmon, Supt., A. G. Hyde, Daryle Pilger, Harold Kuhlmann, Ray Walls, Benson Hager, Oscar Trout, Ann Brewer, R. A. Spencer.

Dear Students:

The members of the Board of Education are proud of the modern facilities we have to offer our boys and girls, to help each one obtain a better education. We thank our faculty and administrators for their untiring efforts to help our students excel.

We know you are concerned with what the future holds in store for you. The future is not in the job you do, but in the man or woman you are. You can be just about what you want to be if your sights are set high enough. "Wise men lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction." Proverbs 10-14.

Good luck to each of you.

Ray Walls

Ray Walls
President of Board

Superintendent of Schools

Dear Students:

I would like for each one of you to ask yourself this question:
"What kind of high school would Beardstown High School be if all the students were just like me?"

Whether you like it or not, you are setting an example for a younger brother, sister, or someone else to follow. Is this example that you are setting raising or lowering the standards for our school?

We must all accept the responsibility for our actions and for the kind of influence we have on other people's lives.

Let us resolve to so live our lives that our influence on other people will be good.

Sincerely,

Loren C. Lemmon

Principal

You have reached the twelfth rung on the ladder of life. There are many steps up this ladder; but through education, determination, and faith the top can be reached.

Congratulations and sincere wishes to each one of the graduates of the class of 1964.

Secretaries

The offices of B. H. S. could not operate without the efficient work of our devoted secretaries. The superintendent, principal, and students greatly appreciate the time that they give to their work. The hall monitors give up their study hall to help with the work in the high school office by collecting absentee slips and doing other odd jobs.

Bus Drivers, Cooks, and Custodians

In the cafeteria, Mrs. Marjorie Looman and her efficient staff of seven cooks prepare hot lunches which are sent to all of the elementary schools. Besides their regular duties, the custodians are called upon by the faculty and students to do anything from removing locks to delivering the hot lunches. Our bus drivers take both players and students to all of our out-of-town games, and transport country students to and from school.

Not another lock!!!

BUS DRIVERS: Melvin Rawlins, Jack Harris, Bud Carls, Roscoe Reichert, Carol Ann Bowman, Tiny Schroeder.

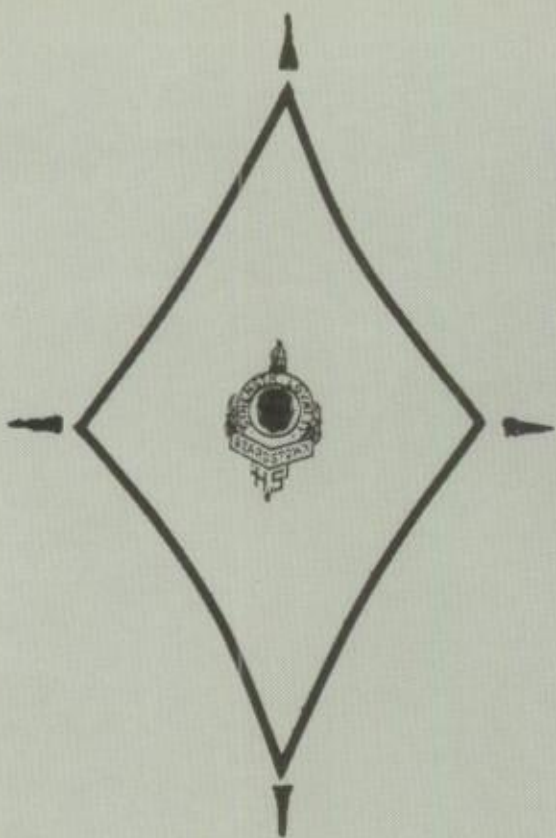

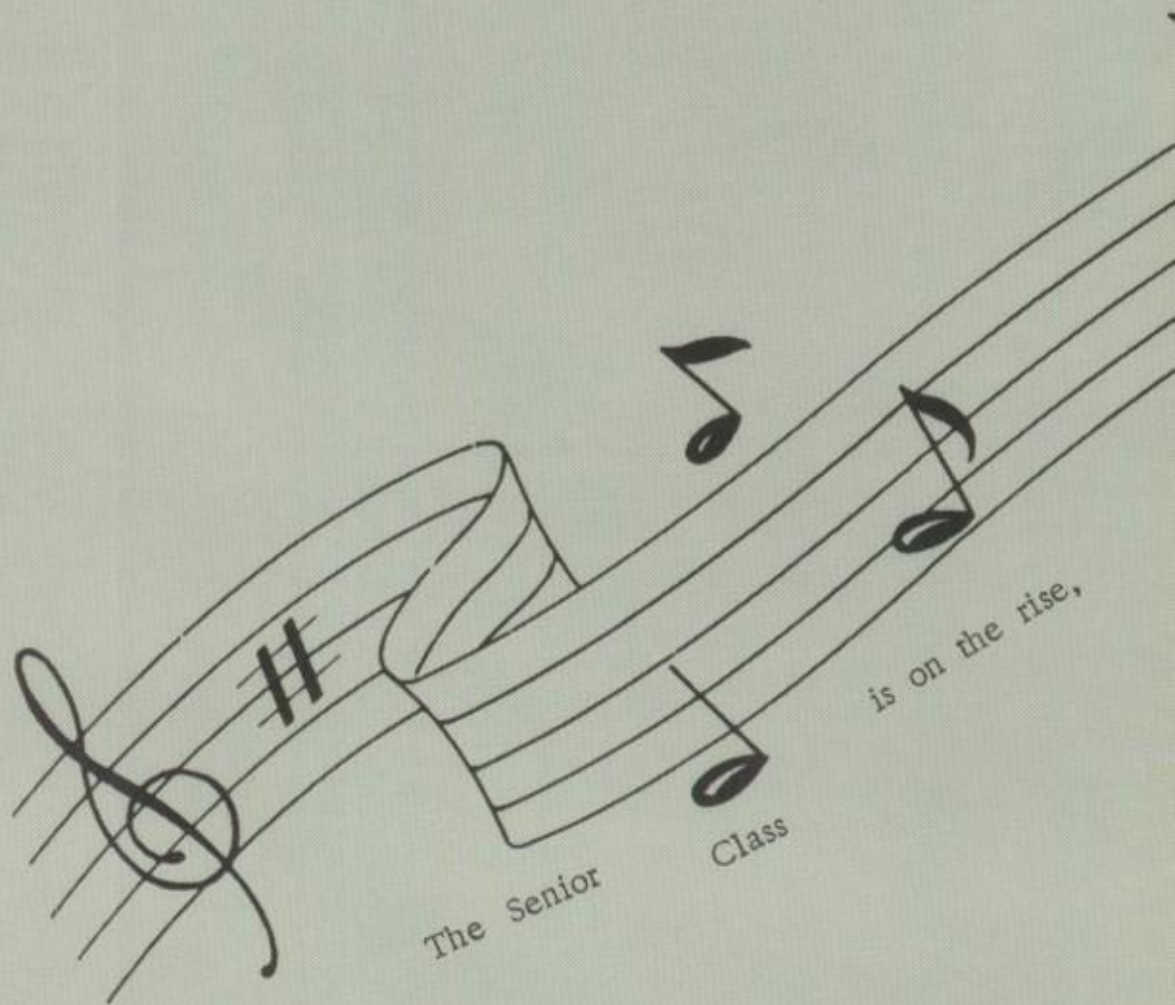

COOKS-Inez Alexander, Rosalee Wubker, LeIsle Miller, Marjorie Looman, director of hot lunch program, Elaine Adkins, Nina Rawlins, Ione Rawlins, Leda Dorsey.

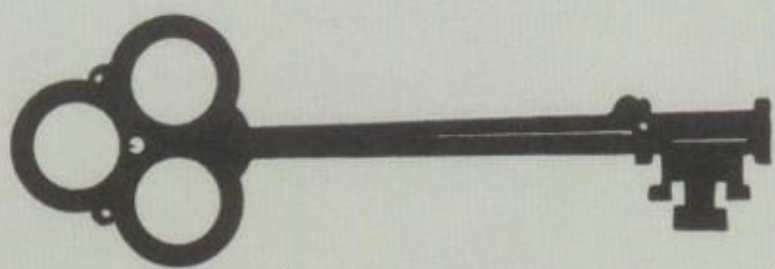

CUSTODIANS-Ed Brockschmidt, Regina Wellenkamp, "Cal" Crisman.

SENIORS

Class of 1964

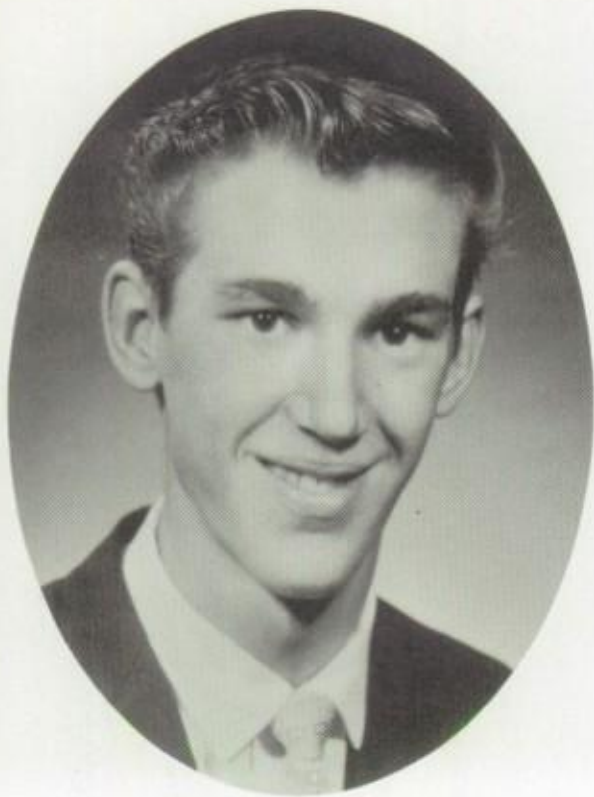

Class Officers - Mr. Sommeroff, Advisor, Bob Burley, John Moore, Linda Logsdon, Sue Fischer.

In our freshman year the class won first place in the Homecoming parade with the float "Over the Rainbow." During our sophomore year we began to earn money for the Junior-Senior Prom. We also received second place with our Homecoming float "The Rocket Trap." Our junior year was devoted to making money for our prom. We had a car wash, smorgasbord, Club Continental, the musical comedy "Take it From the Top," and the concession stands at ball games. Our Senior year we won third place for our float in the Homecoming parade. We put on a successful play "The Jury Room."

FLOWER - Carnation

COLORS - Lavender and white

MOTTO - "A goal cannot be reached until it has been set."

Farewell Seniors!!

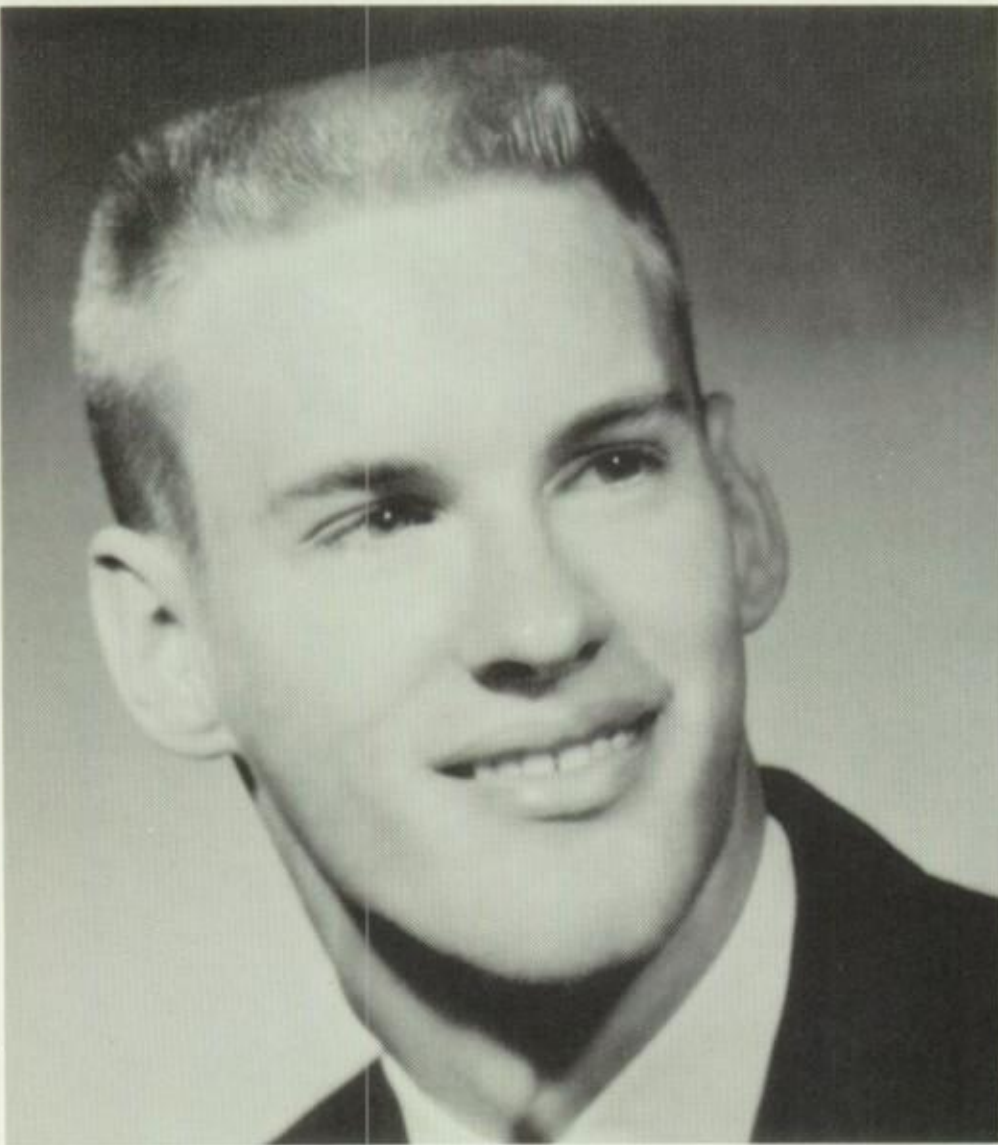

You're going at last, our Senior friends,
And so at last, our friendship ends.
There's no more rushing to beat the bell,
No Class play tickets for you to sell.
No worrying about pencils or ink for your pen,
No shorthand homework, or studying for chem.
No football practice on fields so muddy,
No pounding on typewriters until your fingers are bloody!
No last minute gabs out in the hall,

No more after school sessions of basketball.
No more admits, or little blue slips,
Or "down to the office friendly trips"...
No algebra, or chemical equations,
Nor dreams about your holiday vacations.
No studying, or burning the midnight oil,
Just think! no extra-curricular toil
But remember this verse when you start to roam...
There's no place like B. H. S. and home.

Our Freshmen year began in the fall of 1962. Our Homecoming float won third place and our Sophomore year we placed first. Later our Sophomore year, we began selling candy to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. This year we have worked on Homecoming, had several "work days," sold candy, and taken charge of the concession stands at the ball games.

The first place "Homet pie."

During our freshman year at B.H.S., we began our money-making projects. Although we won only third place in the Homecoming parade for our float, in our sophomore year we managed to top everyone by getting a first. Again this year, we are mostly concerned with making money for future activities.

Beginning our first year at B. H. S., we were hesitant about what our first projects should be. But by the time Homecoming rolled around, we were eager to take our part in high school activities. We made a float and sponsored a successful dance. Since then we have sponsored a sock hop after a football game.

The members of the jury listen to testimony over and over again.

Senior Play

On November 15, 1963 the senior class presented a three-act play entitled "The Jury Room." The twelve members of the jury had to decide the guilt or innocence of Julie Fletcher who was accused of stabbing her uncle. By recreating various testimonies, the jury discovered the identity of the real murderer, who was actually one of the jury members. The cast included: Terry Brasel, Larry Brockhouse, Kenny Cox, Barbara Deming, Leta Fay Hunt, Linda Logsdon, Cindy Ogilvie, Laura-lee Osmer, Tim Rawlins, Carol Theivagt, Sue Vredenburgh, and Terry Wubker.

This intelligent looking group is pondering the fate of Julie Fletcher.

The little old lady seems to have some good reading material.

Is the fortune teller bored or captivated?

JUNIOR PLAY

Alice Ann was determined to turn herself into an unattractive disaster of a date for the Academy dance--and she had a very good reason for it....

The results were hilarious and the Academy dance became a delightful event none of the girls at Worthington Women's Academy or the boys at Jason Boys' School ever forgot.

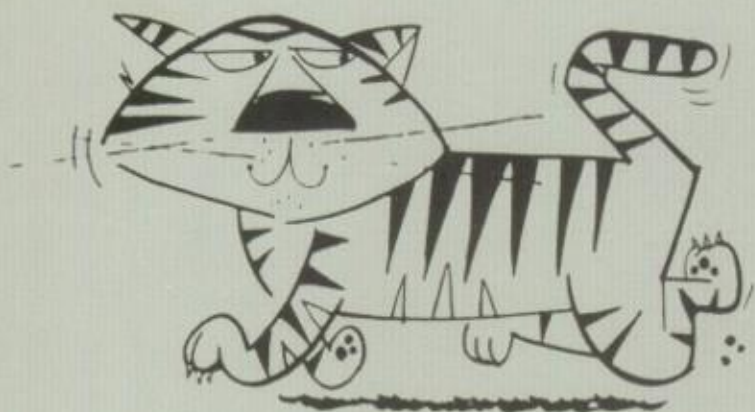

The class play was under the able direction of Mrs. Ruth Hierman.

1963 Football

After being badly outplayed during the first half of a football game, members of the team of Beardstown High School sat dejectedly around the locker rooms waiting for a tongue-lashing from their coach. He entered on the signal for the second half, looked slowly around at each player, and turned to the door. Then he paused, looked back and said, "Well, girls, shall we go?" They won the game. -- Readers Digest

The Tigers, with only two returning lettermen, gave a very good account of themselves this season. Their season record was 10 wins, 13 losses with a third place trophy in the Camp Point Holiday Tournament. Seven of the Tigers' losses were by 5 points or less. The Tigers made a very respectable showing each time they stepped on the floor. Inexperience and lack of varsity participation were prevailing in many games, but the hustle and desire will go a long way.

The Frosh-Soph squad slowly picked up momentum and by the end of the season were rolling along at a good clip. Several boys will make good varsity material next year.

Baseball

This will probably be a good year for the Tigers in baseball. No one from last year's baseball team was a senior and, therefore, we will have all or most of the starting team back for this season. There will be one change this year in managing the baseball Tigers. Mr. Ed Lewis will take the place of Coach Varner, who compiled a very respectable record while he coached.

Track

The track team is looking forward to a successful season. Under the direction of Coach Ron Sullivan, the team will participate in track meets with schools of our conference and district.

This year Ken Christiansen introduced a new sport to the boys who planned to go out for basketball, track, or baseball and who did not plan to play football. This was done primarily to keep the boys in shape for the sports later on in the year. Many boys turned out for the cross country team and enjoyed it very much. Meets with visiting towns were held at the Virginia Country Club.

Trampoline Team

Co-ordination, skill and willingness to spend much time practicing on the trampoline, determines membership of the B. H. S. trampoline team.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Rose Mary Murdock, students try out for the team in the fall. Those who qualify begin practicing three times a week in order to perform at the first home basketball game.

The routines, used at the home basketball games and at the Regional tournament, are worked up by the students themselves.

F.T.A.

The William L. Gard Future Teachers of America Club opened their year with a formal initiation of new members and installation of officers with Mrs. Adele Hegener as sponsor. The F.T.A. has sponsored College Night, attended district and state conventions, observed F.T.A. week, and served as registrars for institutes and P.T.A. meetings. Some members have also been active as student helpers for the faculty. Among some of the social affairs are the Christmas potluck and the annual picnic for seniors.

College Night

On November 18 the F.T.A. Club sponsored the annual College Night. Students and parents from B.H.S. and other schools in this area attended, as well as representatives from some of our surrounding colleges and military academies. Students attended three, thirty minute sessions with colleges of their choice. They were told about scholarships, college fees, housing on campus, college curricula, and were allowed to ask the representatives questions concerning their future education. After the sessions, refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the Home Ec department.

Librarians

As our library grows each year in size and quality, our librarians do likewise. This year there were twenty-five librarians assisting Mr. Pigg in the library during their study periods. Their duties include checking books in and out, stacking shelves, typing, and other necessary jobs.

Mr. Pigg, Director of Audio-Visual Program.

Projectionists

The projectionists, this year sponsored by Mr. Pigg, are responsible for the showing of all films used in audio-visual classes and the filmed programs presented throughout the year. They also assist with the sound system at assemblies and other programs.

Student Council

The Student Council at B. H. S. is a representative body for effective student government. The Student Council achieved many goals beyond its regular duties and activities. They kept our students informed of extra-curricular activities and promoted better relationships between our school and ones in surrounding communities. Certain members of the Council were assigned to the preparation of a weekly informational bulletin board of student activities. A new student handbook will come out next fall which was assembled by this year's Council. At Christmas the representatives took trees and other decorations to the nursing homes in Beardstown to cheer the patients. The Student Council was also in charge of canvassing the town to raise money to aid in the restoration of the courtroom at City Hall.

Glee Clubs

The many hours of hard practice paid off for the B. H. S. Glee clubs and choruses. Their two annual concerts--fall and spring--were highly enjoyed by school and community. Music contributes to any program and the Thanksgiving musical entertainment was especially enlightening this year. Both the boys and girls choruses and many ensembles and solos practiced night after night to prepare for state contest. The members of the choruses must be ready at a moments notice to provide entertainment for various organizations in the city.

Annual Staff

Another year past and all the deadlines have been met. As before we started with our job of advertising. We took ads from the businesses of Beardstown and the surrounding communities. During our study halls, the Sales Staff took orders from the students for the '64 Tiger. The staff worked after school and many nights planning the layouts. Our photographers took pictures of clubs, sports, and other activities. Then our copy editors and typists helped to prepare our book to be sent in for binding. After the annual had been bound, it was sent back to the staff to be distributed to the students and the public.
